presents the

1981 VINTAGE

Edited By: Jeffrey C. Kull

. . . am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.
John 15:1,7

For

...in him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. And ye are complete in him, who is the head of all principality and power." Freeing us from sin, our great God has saved and redeemed us, making us complete in Christ. In Him we find all we need -- as branches find life in the vine, as sheep find guidance and protection in the shepherd, and as a wife finds love in her husband. God has given us new life in Christ, and He challenges us to take His power and grow to be like Christ. The 1981 VINTAGE seeks to emphasize that we are ...

COMPLETE

IN CHRIST

CCORDING

. . . as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue. II Peter 1:3

ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Bob Jones III, President

Much like his father and grandfather, Dr. Bob Jones, III, is faithful in his declaration of the Gospel and fearless in his defense of the faith. He does not hesitate to speak out on current issues as he travels throughout the United States preaching at evangelistic meetings, youth rallies, and other religious gatherings. When he is on campus, Dr. Bob, III, is often busy with "Show My People," a thirty-minute color television program produced by Bob Jones University. He frequently discusses the spiritual direction of the University with the administration, deans, faculty, and student leaders as well as with the entire student body in chapel.

Dr. Bob, III, earned his Bachelor's and Master's degrees at Bob Jones University. He attended Northwestern University and New York University, and he holds honorary doctorates from three colleges in the United States. Before becoming president of the University in 1971, Dr. Bob, III, served as speech teacher, assistant dean of men, and vice president.

The Jones Family

Dr. Bob Jones, Chancellor

The beloved grandfather and chancellor of Bob Jones University, Dr. Bob Jones, is considered one of the most eloquent and forceful pulpiteers of this century. He travels around the world ministering the Gospel, contending for the faith, and encouraging pastors and missionaries. Dr. Bob attended Bob Jones Academy, Bob Jones College, and the University of Pittsburgh, where he earned his Master's degree. He holds six honorary degrees including a Doctorate of Literature from Chung-ang University in Seoul, Korea.

Dr. Bob served as president of Bob Jones College—later Bob Jones University—from 1932 to 1971, when he became chancellor. He is also chairman of the World Congress of Fundamentalists, an international Christian organization which meets every even year. In 1978 the Congress presented Dr. Bob the award of "Mr. Fundamentalist." Besides being the chancellor of Bob Jones University, Dr. Bob is also chairman of the Board of Trustees and the editor of Faith for the Family, the University's monthly publication.

Bob Wood, Executive Vice President

Dr. Bob Wood, the executive vice president of Bob Jones University, assumes the responsibility of directing the activities of the University while the chancellor and president are speaking to groups around the country. His primary functions include managing public relations in matters of University policy, acting as liaison between the faculty and staff, and counseling many University students; he is best known, however, for his clear and enthusiastic preaching in chapel and on Sunday mornings.

Dr. Wood was born in Lawrenceville, Georgia, and attended Georgia State University and Atlanta Bible College. He served as vice president of Brown Transport Corporation of Atlanta from 1972 until he accepted his administrative position at Bob Jones University in 1977. He recently received an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Maranatha Baptist Bible College in Watertown, Wisconsin.

FACULTY/STAFF

Dedication

This year we honor a lady who, by her well-rounded Christian life and spiritual stability, represents completeness in Christ. When Bob Jones College moved to Cleveland, Tennessee, she was one of the first students to attend the one-year business school, and eventually she became the first full-time secretary to the college dean. Presently serving as associate editor for Faith for the Family and as copy editor for numerous Bob Jones University publications, she has helped to make this school complete in its literary outreach. She also has a vital ministry to the women of the community through the weekly Bible study she teaches in her home. The wife of the late University business manager, this warm and vibrant woman is consistently an example of Godly feminine graciousness and spiritual wisdom. It is with genuine respect and honor that we dedicate the 1981 VINTAGE to

Mrs. R. K. Johnson.

This year began with the usual registration procedures. The lines were filled with old and new friends welcoming each other to school, laughing and jabbering, and giving lengthy reports of their summer activities. Faculty members assisted the students in arranging their class schedules and frequently showed several bewildered freshmen what to do next. After three days of dropping, adding, and reorganizing classes, the 1980-81 faculty and student body were on the go!

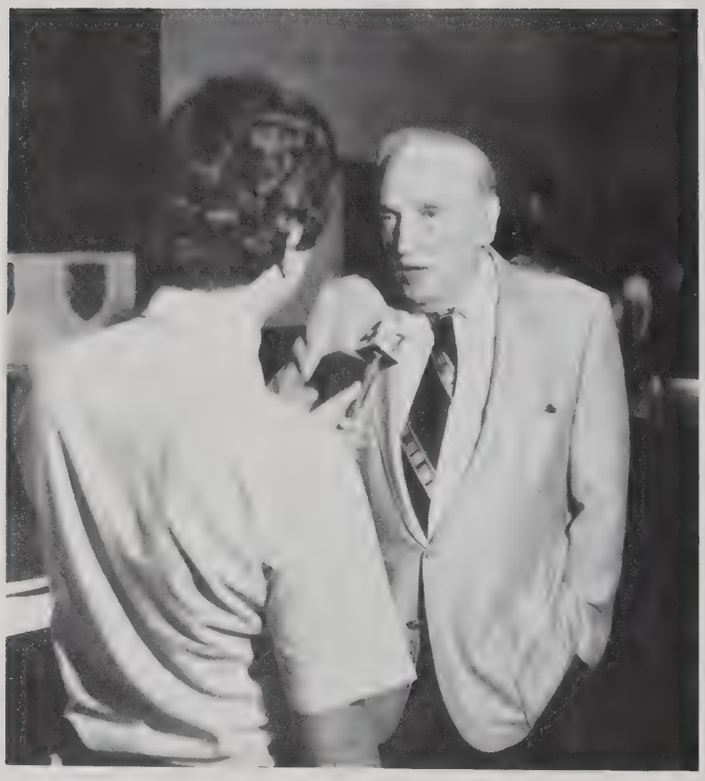
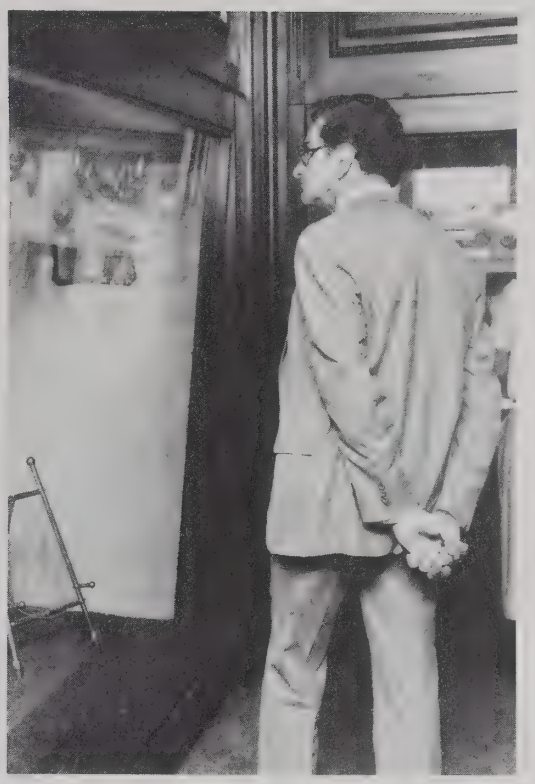
TEXT"





The dedication ceremony of the new J. S. Mack Library, held on September 6, 1980, followed more than sixteen months of careful planning and hard work. The $2.8 million expansion project included the addition of almost sixty thousand square feet to the original building. Mrs. Bob Jones, Sr., gave a brief history of the growth of the Bob Jones University Library since its beginning in 1941. Dr. Bob Jones, the University chancellor, preached the dedication message before officially opening the new building to both the University students and the Greenville public.

This year's students were the first in many years to enjoy the luxury of ample studying room, provided by the newly remodeled Mack Library. The individual study carrels and numerous large tables were conducive to quality studying time, and the students had easy access to the open shelves of books and periodicals, the typing room, and the photocopying machines. The library also houses the Board Room, a beautifully decorated meeting place for the University Board members and other special groups. The library's Jerusalem Chamber, modeled after the Jerusalem Room of Westminster Abby, contains a selection of rare Bibles; and the Archives Room holds memorabilia of both the Jones family and the University.

Bob Jones
a film tribute

On October 30, at eleven o'clock in the morning, the University family gathered for a special chapel service, honoring the Founder of Bob Jones University, Dr. Bob Jones, Sr. After the University Trumpet Choir performed an arrangement of "Take My Life and Let It Be," the Cinema Department showed a tribute film of the life of the Founder. Because Dr. Bob, Sr., devoted his life to blazing a trail on which fundamental, Scriptural preaching and teaching could continue, the Founder's Day Banquet theme was "Blazing the Trail."

Bob Jones University welcomed more than 1500 visitors to the campus on November 26 in preparation for a weekend of exciting Thanksgiving festivities. For four consecutive nights the University Classic Players presented Shakespeare's Comedy of Errors. The week also included showings of three feature-length color films produced by Unusual Films, the Thanksgiving Day praise service, and the annual BJU Soccer Championship—the Turkey Bowl. The week was highlighted with the hard work of the dining common staff serving three separate Thanksgiving banquets.

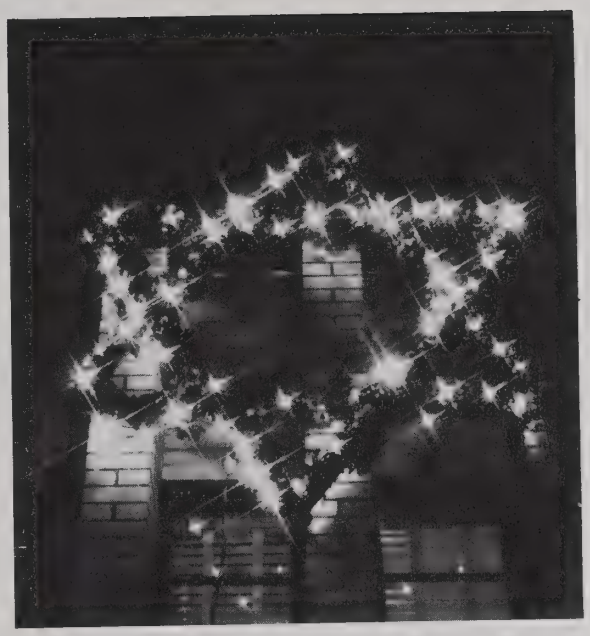
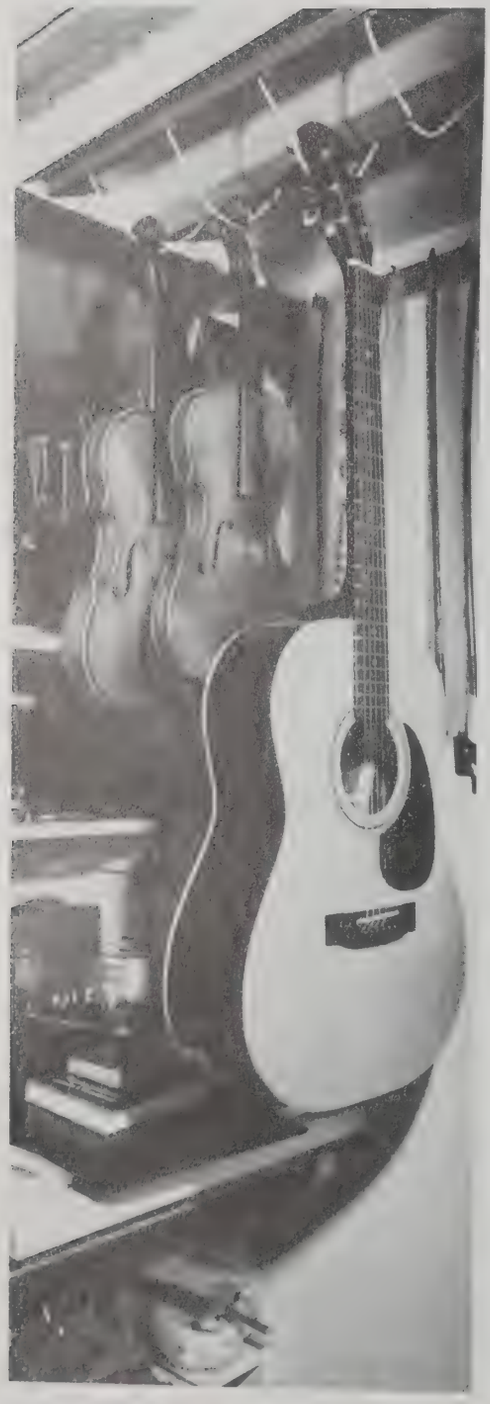
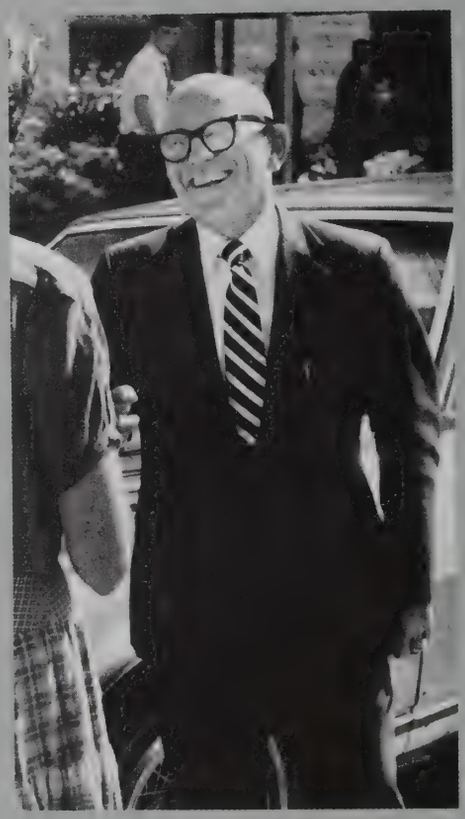
A special flicker of laughter in the eyes and a certain glow about the faces were obvious signs that Bob Jones University students were headed home for the Christmas holidays. The students were eager to participate in the ministries of their home churches, sharing the Biblical principles and lessons they had learned at school. The fact that family and friends, home-cooked meals, and carefree days of rest and enjoyment were in store made the loaded cars evacuate the campus in seemingly no time at all. Within hours, the University was quiet, empty. It remained so until the students' smiling faces returned after the holidays were over.





Special Chapel Speakers



Dr. E. Robert Jordan

On October 2 Dr. E. Robert Jordan, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in Lansdale, Pennsylvania, made his first visit to Bob Jones University and spoke in chapel. His sermon called "Gaining a Brother" warned against the dangers of letting the cancer of bitterness destroy one's relationship to God and other Christians. Dr. Jordan urged the students to make restitution with an offended brother through an attitude of humility and with a spirit of kindness. The next day Dr. Jordan delivered a message that stressed the believer's unique ability to overcome discouragement by meditating on God's love and by claiming the power of the Holy Spirit to overcome sin.

Dr. Ken Hay

Dr. Ken Hay, director of the Wilds Youth Camp in North Carolina, spoke in the October 14 chapel service on the Christian's walk through life. His message centered on the fact that one's way of living reflects the attitudes of his heart. A Christian who is worthy of being called God's child separates himself from sin, does God's will with humility, and uses his time wisely. Dr. Hay enforced the fact that a believer's unconditional obedience to God's commands expresses love for Him and is as a sweet-smelling, acceptable sacrifice to the Lord.

Dr. Dick Meier

On November 13-14, 1980, the University students, faculty, and staff gathered to hear Dr. Dick Meier, the pastor of Open Door Baptist Church in Kansas City, Kansas, preach from Psalm 119:49-64. Dr. Meier concentrated on the five spiritual qualities—hope, comfort, stability, sensitivity, and joy—that characterize the victorious Christian life and explained that constant self-examination assures the Christian of victory. He also stressed that to be effective Christians we must have not only the proper perspective of ourselves but also the proper perspective of the Lord, our enemies, and other believers.

Rev. Al Cockrell

Pastor Al Cockrell of Tri-City Baptist Church in Kansas City, Missouri, ministered to the student body on November 20-21, 1980. Using Judges 17:6 as the text, he described the repeated process of Israel's digression from the law and their fall into judgment. Pastor Cockrell emphasized that Israel returned to God merely for relief from oppression rather than with a sincere heart. In closing, he illustrated the correct heart attitude by referring to Mary's determination, humility, and consistency in Luke 10:38-42.

Dr. Richard A. Harris

The Reverend Richard A. Harris, pastor of Bethel Baptist Church in Sellersville, Pennsylvania, delivered a series of soulwinning messages prior to Christmas vacation. Choosing Psalm 126 and Luke 14 as his main texts, Pastor Harris stressed the necessity of winning souls and the conditions for success in doing so. He reminded the students of the effectiveness of winning the prospect's confidence before presenting the Gospel, listening closely to discern his spiritual condition, and following up on the new convert. An important time of self-examination and spiritual revival, the soulwinning conference made the students realize anew their responsibility to bring others into the family of God.

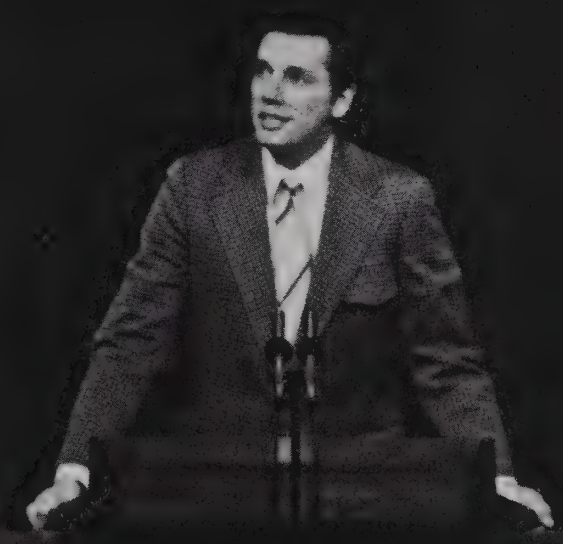
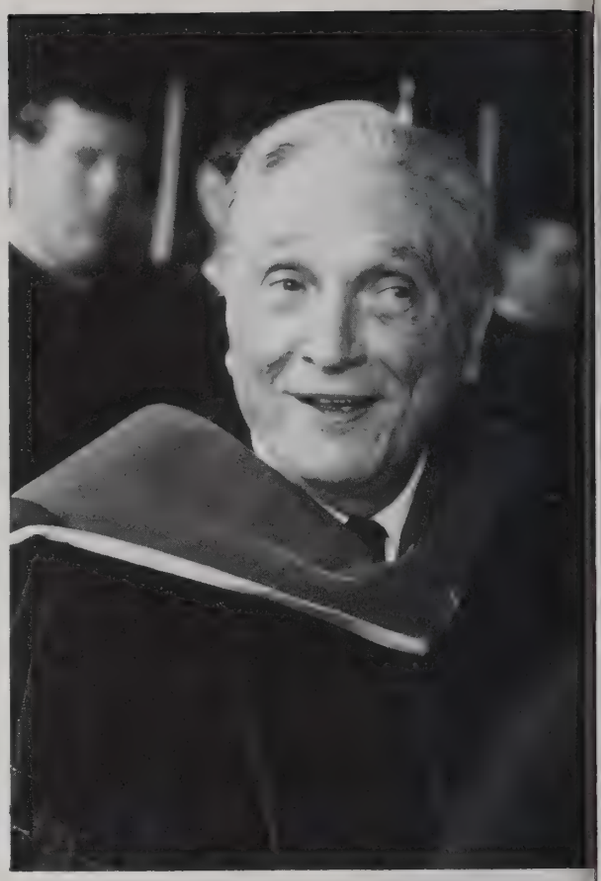
Bible Conference

The annual spring Bible Conference provides encouragement and inspiration for thousands of students and visitors each year. The Bible teachers, pastors, evangelists, and other outstanding spokesmen of the Christian faith, as well as the new summer ensembles, challenge and bless many hearts during a week that has become the focal point of the school year. Spring Bible Conference is a time for both fellowship with other Christian friends and instruction from the Word of God.



ORIUM



As the 1980-81 school year came to a close, the members of the graduating class said a sentimental farewell to Bob Jones University. Having received four years of intense training, these students had attained their goals, met their requirements, and were now beginning a new phase of their lives. As they branched out into the different ministries for which they had been preparing, they anticipated the opportunities not only to apply their acquired knowledge, but also to learn additional lessons from experience.

I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Galatians 2:20

College of Arts and Science

Teaching and learning are value-oriented activities. They do not happen in a vacuum but occur on a philosophical basis, regardless of whether such philosophy is clearly enunciated or merely tacitly assumed. Nothing can be taught from a philosophically neutral stance. A teacher's morals, ethics, his values and sense of obligation manifest themselves much more in HOW he teaches than in WHAT he teaches. The Christian teacher, therefore, teaches all subject matter from the basis of truth and a Christian perspective with the Word of God as his unerring reference point. As a result, his student will learn principle and discernment; and the student's convictions will be anchored in something deeper than the convenience of the moment. A student will find academic excellence in all the disciplines offered by the College of Arts and Science. As these disciplines are taught, he will achieve understanding rather than confusion, gain certainty in place of ambiguity, embrace truth instead of error. All education worthy of its name must be grounded in the truth; and that truth is the Word of God.

Dwight Gustafson, Dean of the School of Fine Arts

Our uniqueness is simply the uniqueness of Bob Jones University itself which is a genuine Christian education, giving the Lord Jesus Christ first place, standing firm on Biblical principle, emphasizing the development of disciplined Christian character, and then providing the highest possible quality of training in the fine arts.

Our broad range of courses and cocurricular programs in art, music, speech, and cinema makes us the largest and most active arts center of this kind in Christian education today. However, we have no right to exist on the basis of the quality of this training alone. Unless Christ is first, unless this is a genuinely Christian education, unless ours is a genuinely Christian culture (not culture plus Christianity), we will not fulfill our God-given calling.

THE

School of Education

The School of Education trains teachers primarily for Christian schools and mission schools around the world, although a few of our graduates teach in the public schools. Our state-approved program under NASDTEC standards (National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification) qualifies a graduating senior to be certified in South Carolina, as well as in 27 other states by reciprocity. About half of the students major in elementary education, qualifying them to teach on the kindergarten through the eighth grade level. The rest of the students in education major in one of the eleven different subject matter areas taught in the typical high school.

The School of Education has ten different master's degree programs and a doctor of education degree. The primary master's degree program is in educational administration and supervision, which educates principals for Christian schools around the country. Many of our graduates go on to teach in Christian colleges and universities after getting their master's and doctor's degrees. Our School of Education is the largest in the country, training both Christian teachers and administrators for Christian and mission schools.

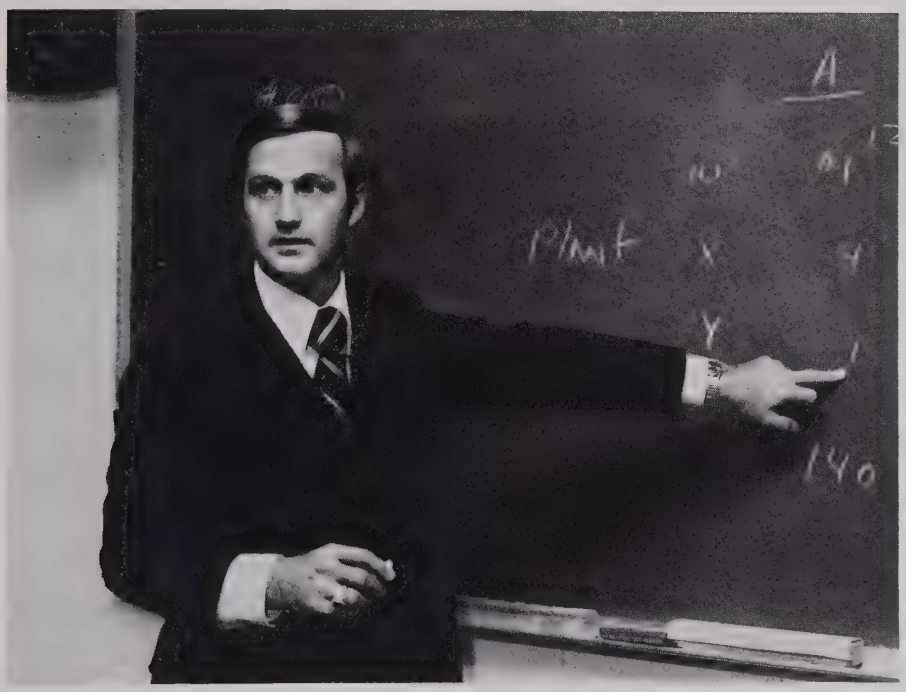
School of Business Administration



Richard Leiter, Dean of the School of Business Administration

The distinctive features of Bob Jones University's School of Business Administration are threefold. First, the depth and thoroughness of each major offered within the School of Business is unique. The accounting program, for instance, requires more professional accounting courses than any other undergraduate school in America. Our management program offers the student an in-depth look into the principles, applications, and case studies of actual management situations, in addition to field trips to many of the nation's largest industries. In office administration our secretarial students have the opportunity to go beyond what most schools require in their skill courses. The second distinctive feature is the faculty. Although our faculty are interested in each student's academic achievement, their primary goal is to help each student find God's will for his life. Third, the School of Business Administration offers an extensive placement service whereby many of the nation's major corporations come to the campus each year to interview graduating seniors for positions in both business and Christian service.

Thurman Wisdom, Dean of the School of Religion

School of Religion

"We teach our students how to load the Gospel gun and how to shoot it." These words of Dr. Bob Jones, Sr., epitomize the distinctive features of the Bob Jones University School of Religion. A marksman must have good ammunition, but even with the best ammunition, if he does not learn how to shoot the gun, all is lost. The Bob Jones University School of Religion provides the best in ammunition—ammunition molded in the foundry of God's Word through the ministry of experienced men of God; but beyond that, Bob Jones University, as no other school in the country, provides students with guided, practical experience in "shooting the Gospel gun."

Training for Christian service at Bob Jones University goes far beyond the classroom. The entire campus is a training base, and virtually every experience becomes an instrument for the molding of the servant of God. The dormitory prayer groups, the mission prayer bands, the literary societies, the campus organizations, the vesper programs, the radio and TV ministries, and the numerous Christian service extension ministries all provide the student with opportunities for spiritual growth, practical experience, and the development of his God-given gifts.

This blend of high quality training and down-to-earth practical experience is a unique feature of the Bob Jones University School of Religion.

Graduate School

Bob Jones University offers graduate degrees in the fine arts, religion, and education. Academically qualified and experienced in their fields, the graduate faculty guides students in programs that emphasize individual attention and academic excellence. In addition, the recently expanded Mack Library offers exceptional resources for research. Each field of study carefully adheres to the authority of God's Word. The graduate division of religion helps students gain a mastery of the Bible, focusing on the needs of the local church. The graduate division of education, basing its curriculum on the Christian philosophy of education, trains students in administrative and human relations skills in addition to specific subject areas. Fine arts students benefit from the extensive cocurricular activities offered at BJU, gaining valuable experience to supplement classroom learning as well as using their talents for God's service.

Nelson McGeoch, Director of the Institute of Christian Service

The Institute of Christian Service is not just another Bible college though each student receives a particularly thorough training in the Bible. Students are also instructed in basic academics and a variety of Christian service courses that have helped our graduates to be outstandingly effective in many areas of the Lord's work. Receiving ICS training while participating in all the activities of campus life at Bob Jones University provides a unique educational opportunity for the Christian student not seeking a University degree. The Institute of Christian Tradesmen allows the Christian layman who desires to work with his hands the possibility of getting a Christian education while learning a trade.

Pioneer Days

"Be a pioneer! Get the pioneer spirit!" Buttons, bulletin boards, posters, and pep talks carried the cry with an enthusiasm that tantalized the students' curiosities and stimulated their desire to participate, even before knowing what the Pioneer Days were. Since the forty existing literary societies had become uncomfortably large from the University's increased enrollment, the Administration urged the students to consider being "pioneers" in the forming of new ones. The pioneer spirit swept the campus, and the resulting fifty-four medium-sized societies provided everyone with more opportunities for leadership and general participation.

Meetings

Society spirit blazed every Wednesday morning as the fifty-four University literary societies met for an hour of cheering, skits, singing, and enthusiastic challenges. The societies emphasize participation in school activities and encourage social and spiritual development while helping to establish lasting friendships and spiritual unity during the morning meetings and the Wednesday evening prayer meetings.

Outings

Excitement mounted as different groups of chattering couples climbed into buses every Saturday and headed for the nearby mountains or parks for their annual dating outing. Students enjoyed a favorite friend's company in a relaxing atmosphere and were refreshed by the break from the routine of campus life. The leisurely outing day, filled with scenic walks along a lakeside, catered picnics, and hilarious games and skits, was one of the highlights of society life.

Competition

The excitement of the intramural sports program at Bob Jones University was heightened this year by the addition of twelve new literary societies. The soccer, basketball, and softball games, and the minor sports were often wild and unpredictable, but the society debate competition was quiet and tense. The spirited pep rallies, the hours of practice before an athletic event, and the preparation before a society debate emphasize the most important goal of society competition: unity.

Christmas Vespers

"Glory to the New Born King" was the theme of this year's Christmas Vespers, directed by Mrs. James Edwards of the Speech Department. This special program, featuring a combination of University choirs accompanied by the orchestra, included Robert Shaw's "Many Moods of Christmas, Suite One," "Come, Little Children," and a medley of Christmas songs. Through the beautiful decor and tasteful selections of music and speech numbers, the program reinforced in its viewers' minds the miracle of the nativity and the glory of Christ's kingship over heaven and earth.

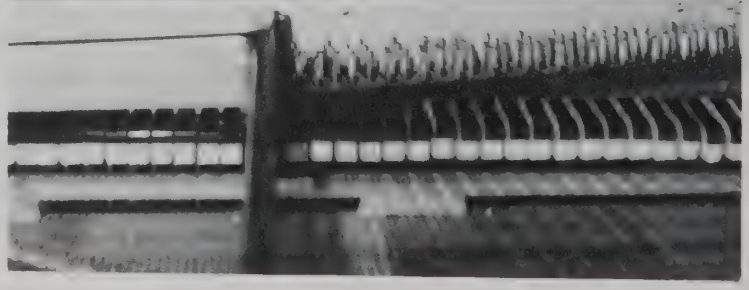
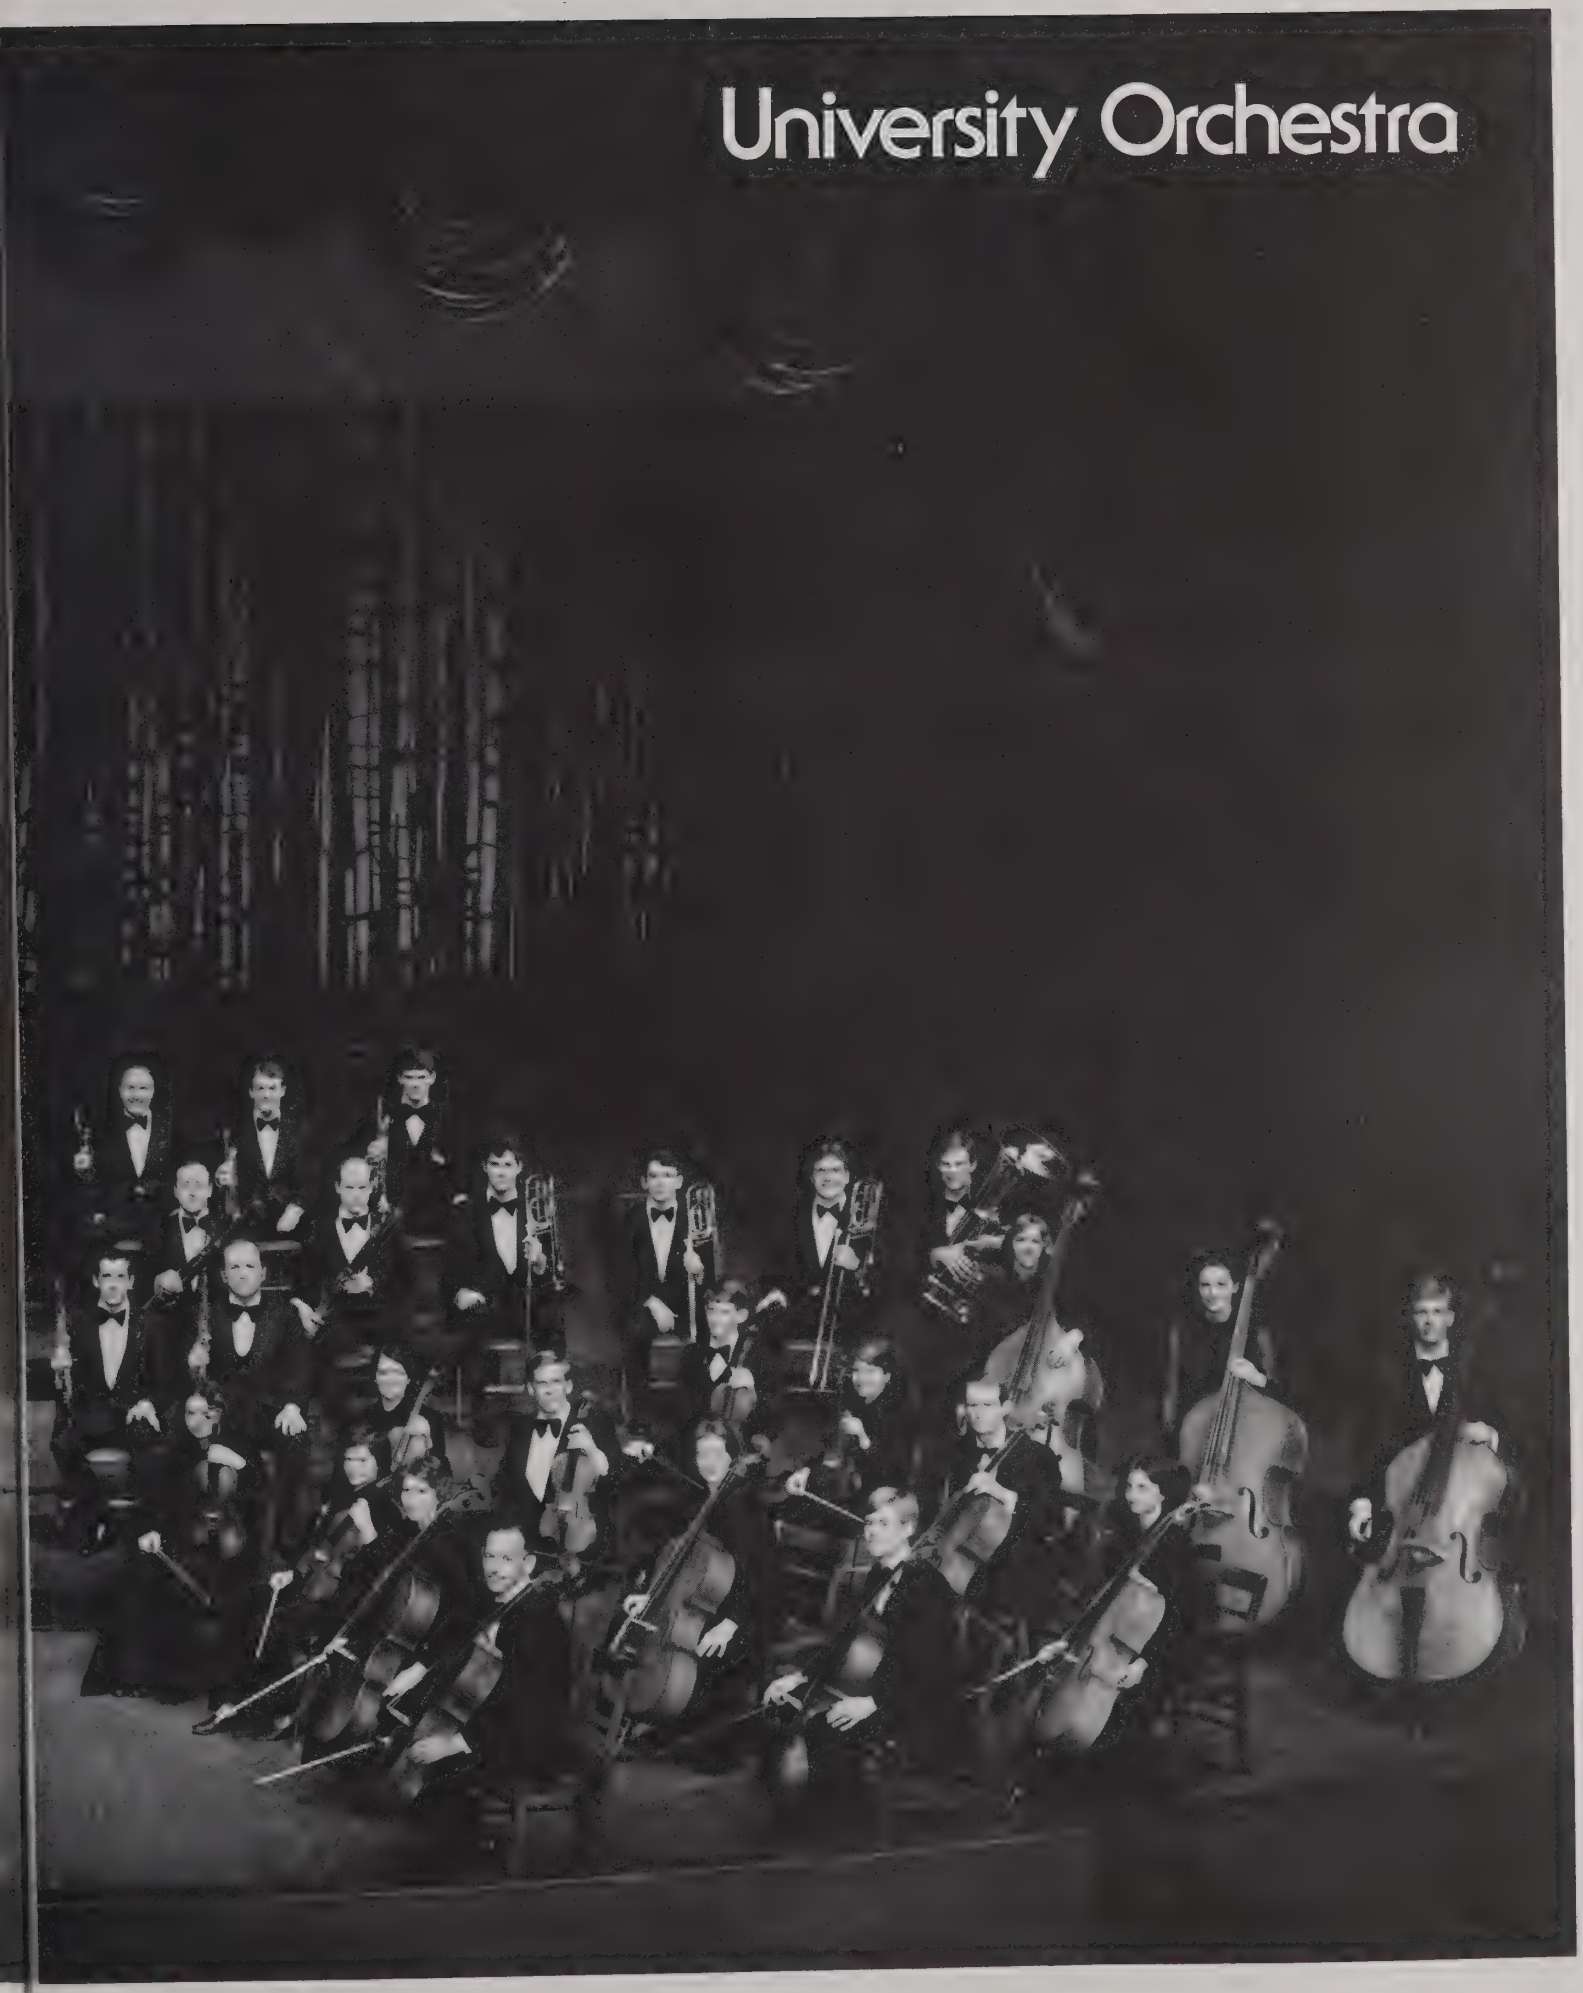
Concerts, Plays, and Recitals



The University's sequence of concerts, plays, and recitals helps performers set goals toward which they can sharpen their skills and talents. This year the University Orchestra's concerts and the Faculty Recital Series made several evenings into special occasions, while the senior speech and music recitals in the afternoons and the traditional outdoor Symphonic Band concerts on the Gallery Green provided more informal entertainment. Through these programs, the students developed an appreciation for both God-given talents in themselves and others and the high level of fine arts training afforded them at Bob Jones University.

University Orchestra



Atlanta Symphony Orchestra

The Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, one of the South's most highly acclaimed musical groups, visited the University on September 29 to perform the first program of this year's Artist Series. The conductors, Robert Shaw and Louis Lane, have worked hard to achieve the Orchestra's admirable reputation for musical excellence and personal unity. The students appreciated the special occasion for both socializing and enjoying tasteful musical entertainment.

Robin McCabe

Robin McCabe, one of the most distinguished American pianists, has accumulated an impressive record of achievement since her debut in New York's Carnegie Hall in 1975. She is noted throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Europe for her exceptional artistry and interpretive abilities. A native of Washington, Miss McCabe has made frequent appearances with orchestras including the Seattle Symphony, the St. Louis Symphony, and the American Symphony of Los Angeles. She has been a top performer in several Artists Competitions and was the sole American finalist in the 28th International Concours de Musique in Geneva, Switzerland. Her amazing transition from a piano student at the Juilliard School of Music to a nationally sought-after artist is described in her full-length biography, A Pianist's Progress.

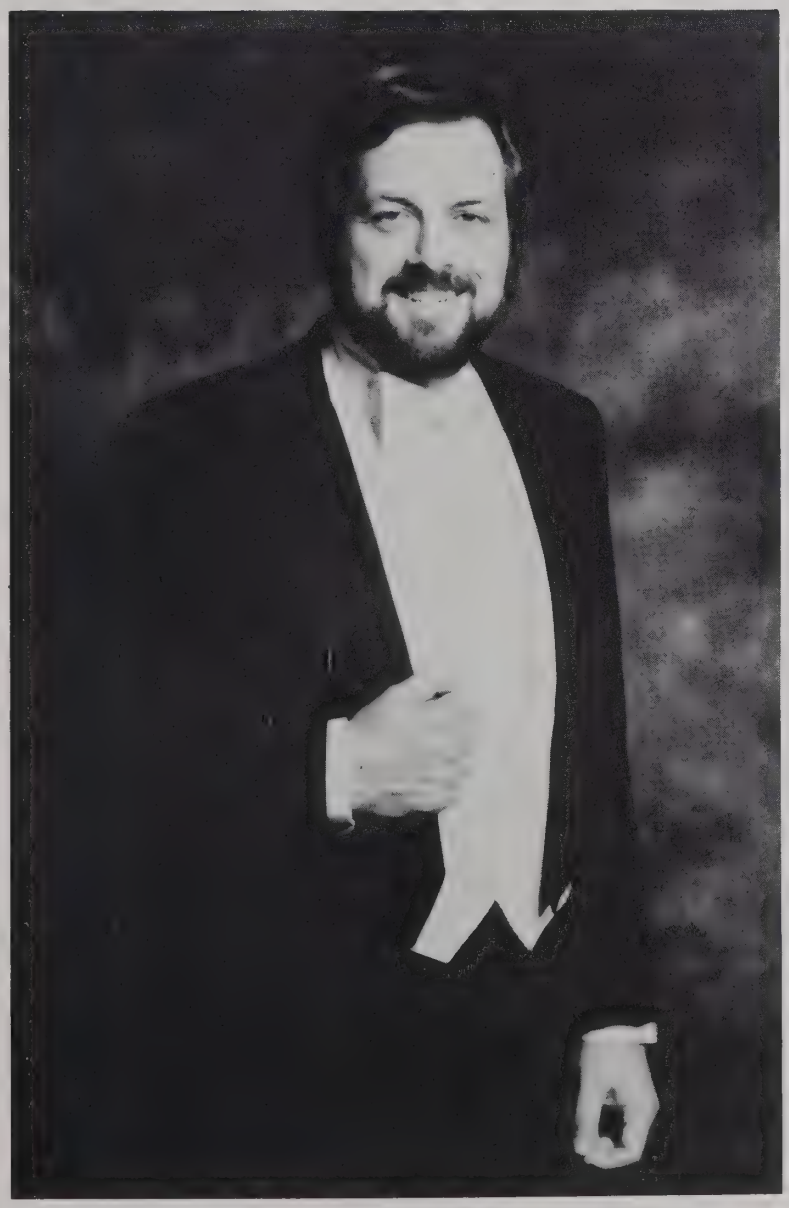
Joseph Blanton

The dynamic, tenor voice of Joseph Blanton sounded clearly throughout the Founder's Memorial Amphitorium during a special sacred concert on the afternoon of March 29. Through portions of Scripture set to music, a few Negro spirituals, and several other religious songs, Mr. Blanton sang praises to God and portrayed his own testimony. Having sung in operas and oratorios around the world, Joseph Blanton also proved to be a proficient singer of sacred music when the message of his concert at Bob Jones University was a blessing to all that heard it.



William Harness

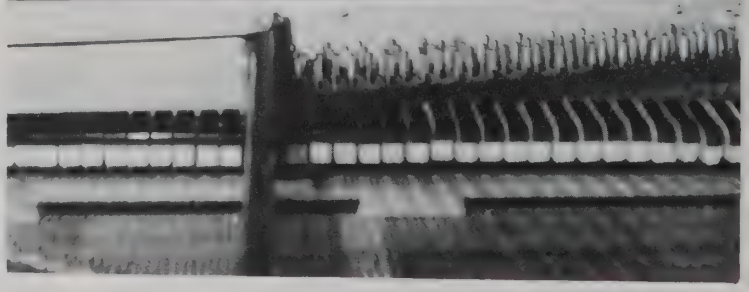
On the crisp, cool evening of February 3, scurrying figures wearing formals and corsages, dark suits and boutonnieres made their way excitedly into the Amphitorium for a special concert. William Harness, a young tenor who has performed with many renowned opera companies and orchestras, had come to entertain the entire student body with opera selections and light vocal music. Mr. Harness's enjoyable performance proved to be well worth the students' anticipation.

Comedy of Errors

During the last week of November, Mr. Donald Ryerson directed the University Classic Players' presentation of The Comedy of Errors, one of William Shakespeare's most entertaining comedies. The action is based on the mistaken identities of two pairs of identical twins as they wander through the streets of Ephesus. The cast included Ben Graydon and David Burke as the two wealthy Syracusian brothers and Dan and Dave Kistler as their twin servants.

In May, Mr. David Mook directed the performance of King Lear in which Dr. Bob Jones played the title role.

Concerts, Plays, and Recitals



The University's sequence of concerts, plays, and recitals helps performers set goals toward which they can sharpen their skills and talents. This year the University Orchestra's concerts and the Faculty Recital Series made several evenings into special occasions, while the senior speech and music recitals in the afternoons and the traditional outdoor Symphonic Band concerts on the Gallery Green provided more informal entertainment. Since its beginning in 1951, the Bob Jones University Art Gallery has provided visitors and students with cultural opportunities and has served as an historical record of religious art in the Western world from the XIV to the XIX centuries. Specially designed wall coverings complement the paintings, sculptures, and furnishings in some rooms. Others of the thirty galleries contain original Gothic or Renaissance paneling and beamed ceilings. The elegant atmosphere serves as a background for such masters as Rembrandt, Rubens, and Van Dyck and encourages spiritual inspiration as well as cultural enrichment.

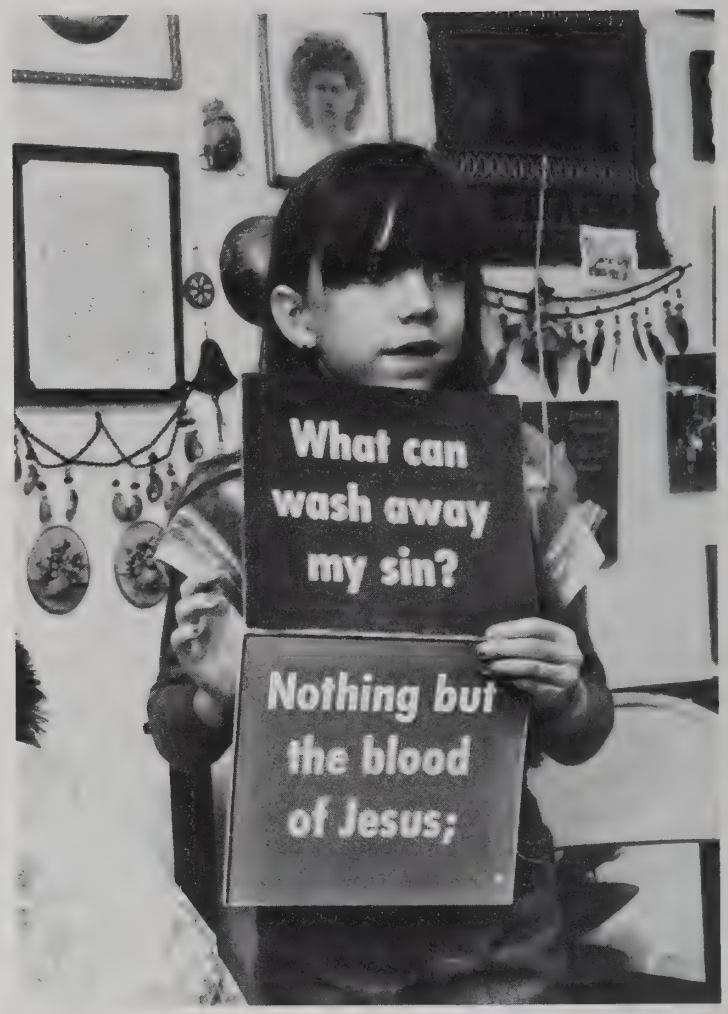
ORGANIZATIONS

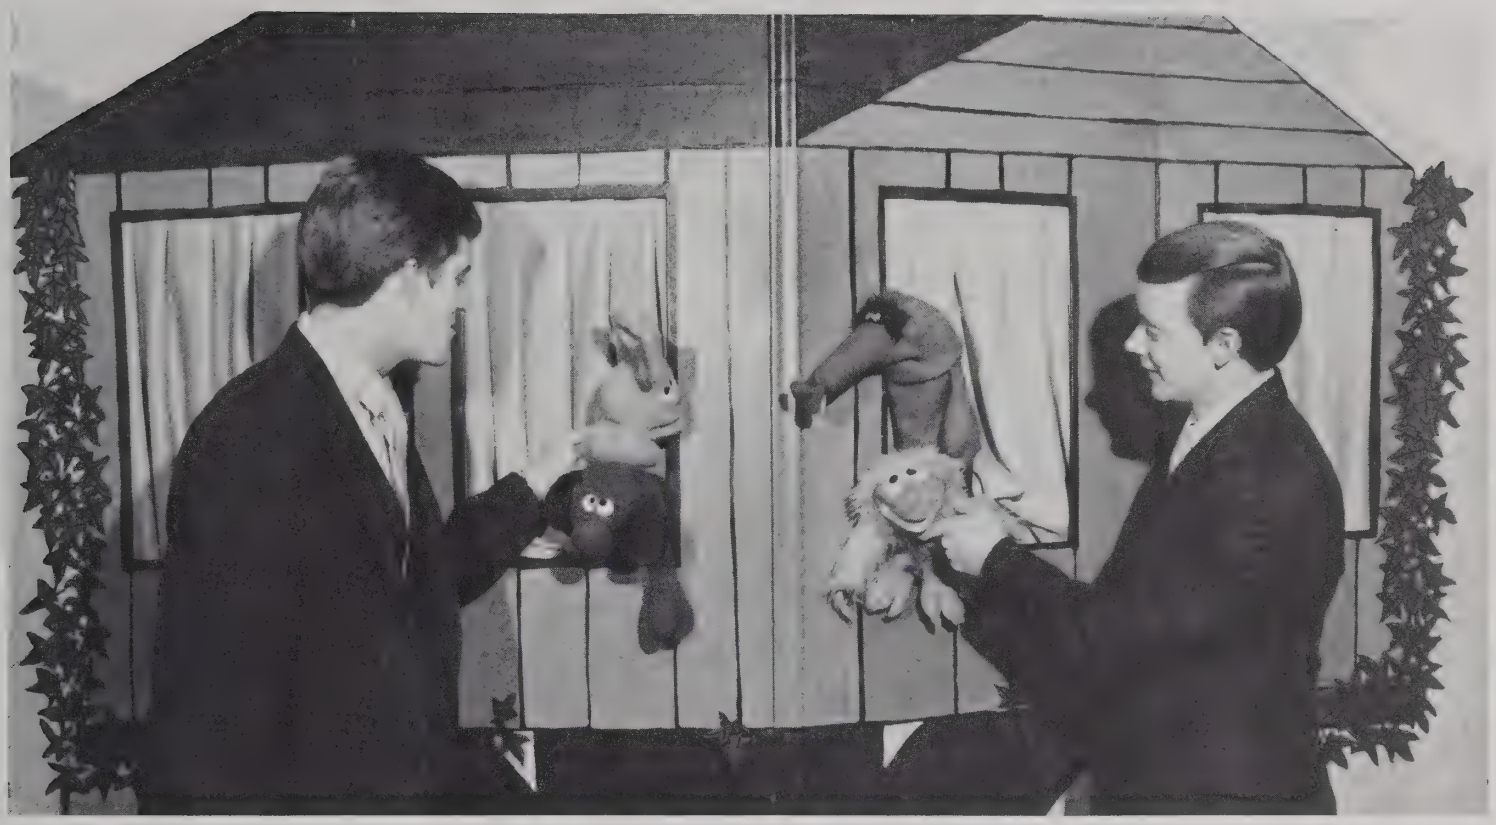
Extension Ministries

The elderly enjoy having young people come to read the Bible, pray, and visit with them each week.



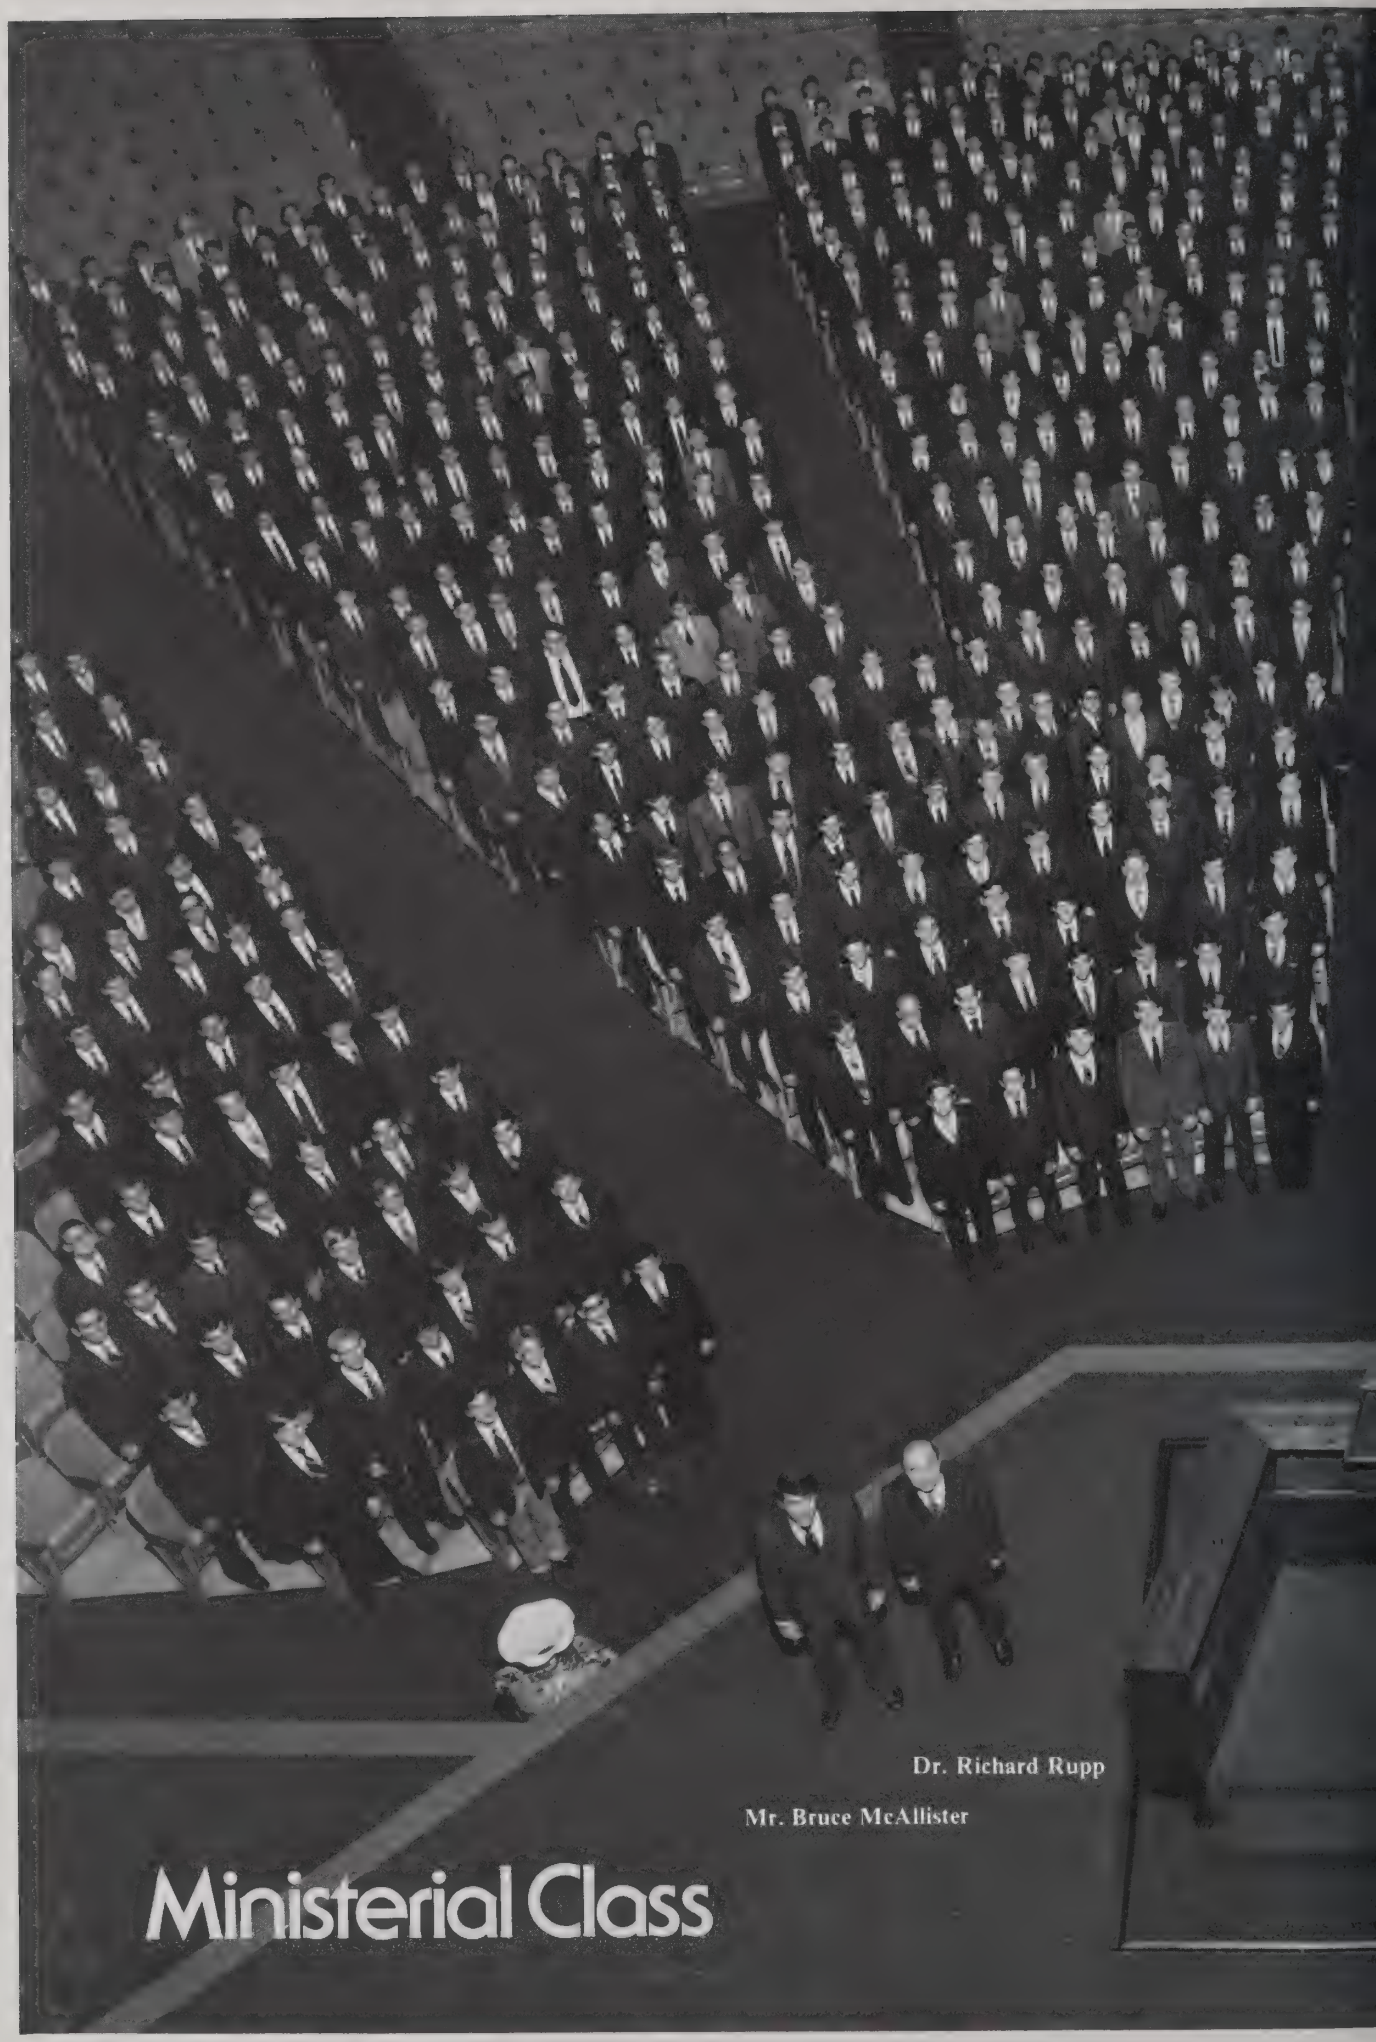
Children help lead songs that teach them truths about God.

Many students assist local churches in their AWANA programs and gain practical experience in teaching young children.

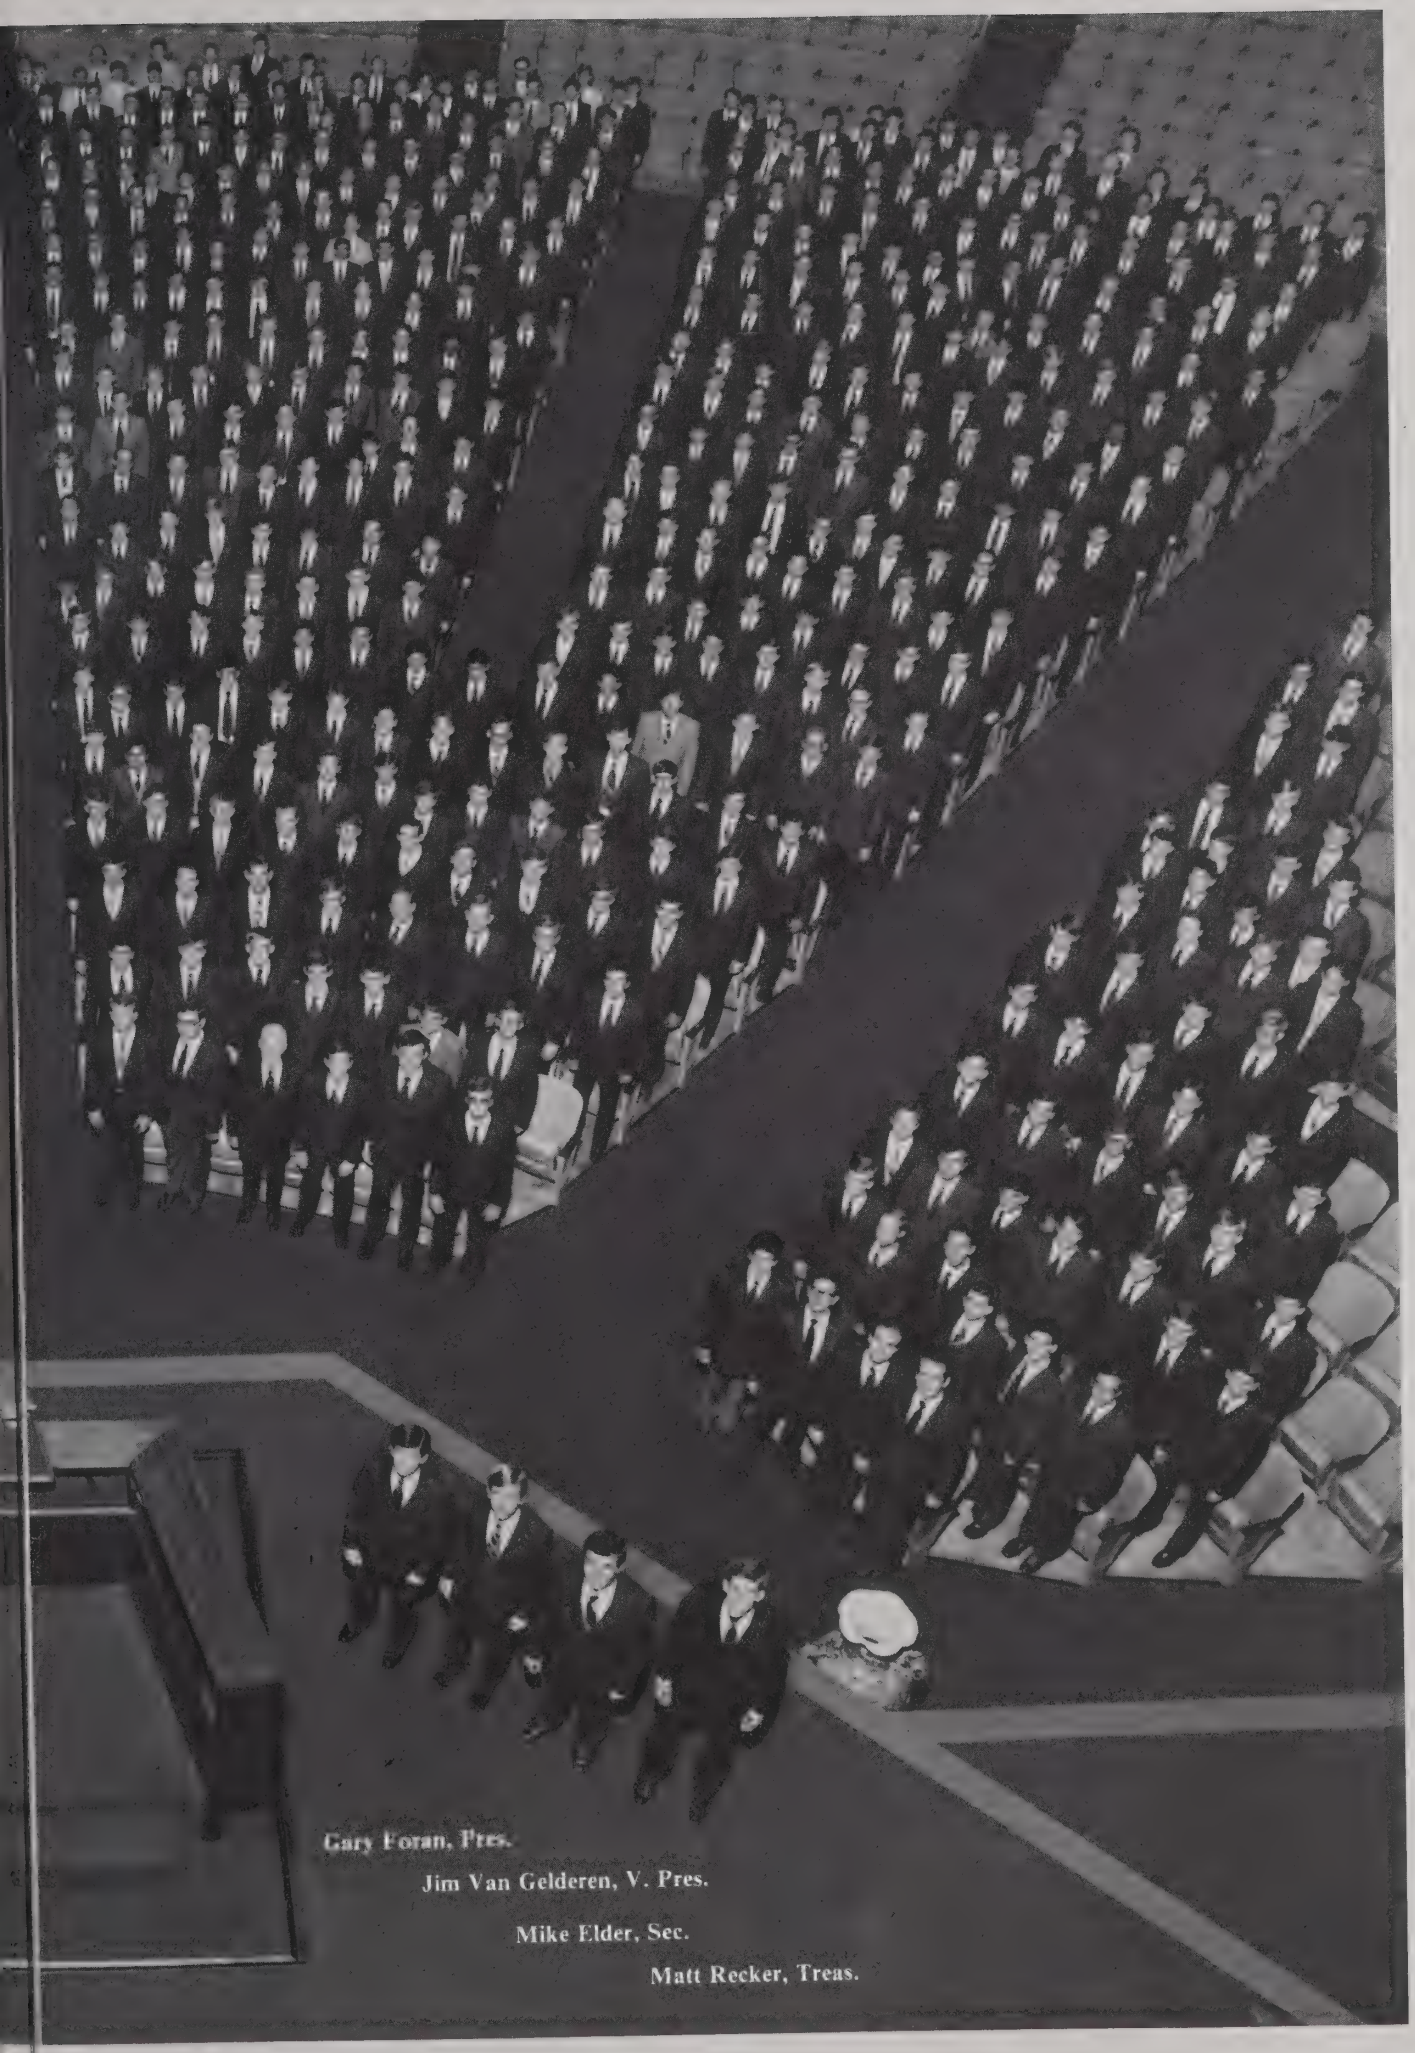


Basilean's traveling puppet team delights children with its creative means of presenting the gospel.

Little children love to learn action songs in Bible Club.



Ministerial Class



Gary Foran, Pres.

Jim Van Gelderen, V. Pres.

Mike Elder, Sec.

Matt Recker, Treas.

Mission Prayer Band

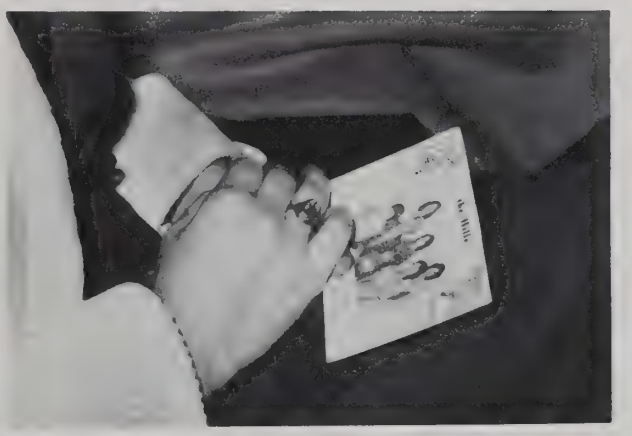
During evening challenges summer mission team members share their experiences along with their burden for souls.

Following supper, many students enjoy a time of fellowship and prayer.

Consistent prayer affects the ministries of many missionaries around the world.

Tony Abbott, Pres.; Sid Galloway, V. Pres.; Lesa Seibert, Pres.; Lynn Flourney, Sec.; Janice Oshiro, V. Pres.; Julia Keyt, Sgt. at Arms; Cathy Baetz, Chor.; Steve Grinnell, Chor.; Janice Hoxey, Pianist

Averaging 35 girls in 8 different prayer groups, the Girls' Mission Prayer Band saw an increase in numbers as well as in faithful attendance throughout the year.



After reading about the specific needs of missionaries, students pray for these missionaries and often write letters of encouragement to them.

Student Body

Student Body

Karen Puttie, S.S. Sec.; Janet Yost, Sec.; Bill Roach, Sgt. at Arms; Brad Zockoll, Pres.; Bruce Zimmerman, Chor.; Cindy Abbott, V. Pres.; Scott Roberts, Organist; John Lehman, Treas.; Mark Asay, V. Pres.

Lively guitar and banjo pickin' created a country atmosphere in the meeting.

Student Body officers Brad Zockoll and Mark Asay find working together a challenge, if not an impossibility.

Eric Sipe and Don Phelps entertained the Student Body with renditions of "If Only I Could Spell Ptbll" and "If Ever I Would Leave You."

A Japanese kamikaze entered the battle, somewhat out of historical context, but was soon destroyed by the HMS Hood.

This doesn't look like a battleship, but it was enough to sink the Bismarck.

Mark Asay wanted to be a star in the show, but unfortunately he was shooting too high.

Home Economics Association

Lanette Mercado, Pres.; Pam Hansel, V. Pres.; Nancy Long, V. Pres.; Karen Gorman, Sec./Treas.

Home Economic students gain valuable experience in actual home management while staying in the home economics house.

Twila Araki creates the perfect atmosphere for entertaining a group of faculty members.

Jackie Cagle applies newly learned techniques to a sewing project.

Business Association

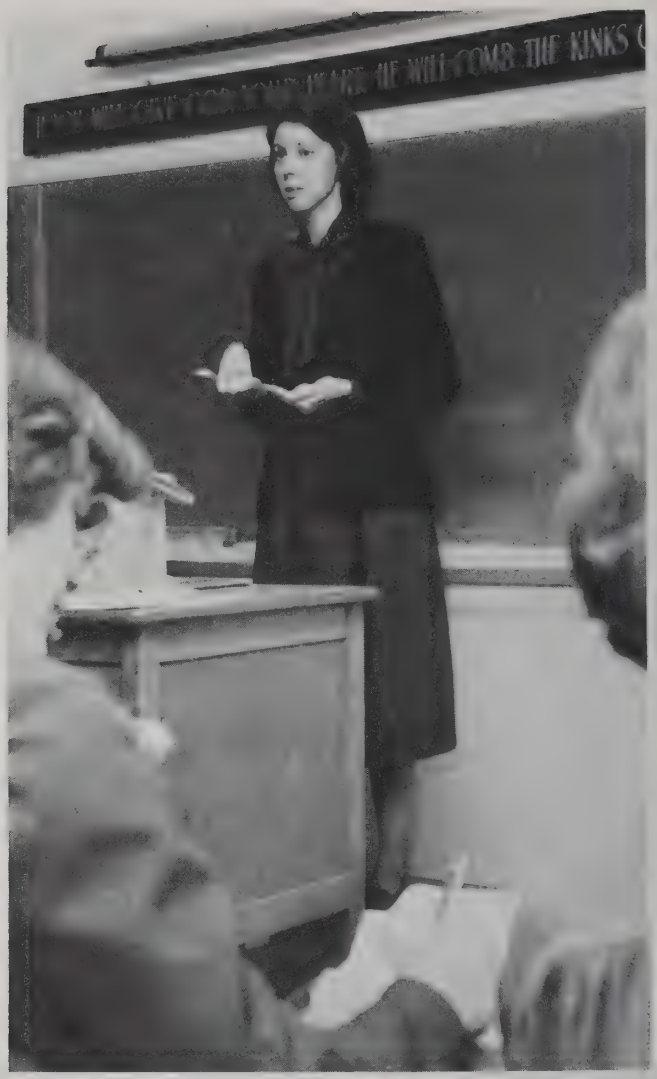
Dan Leatherwood, Pres.; Dave Riber, V. Pres.; Martha Lennon, V. Pres.; David Bott, Treas.; Dawn Brooks, Sec.

A 1963 graduate of Bob Jones University, Mr. Chris Simpson presented a Christian businessman's view on the ethics of foreign kickbacks.

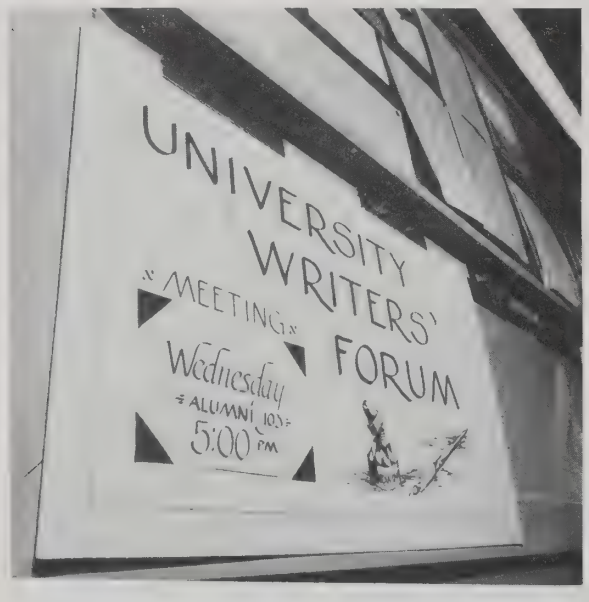
Mrs. Betty Boebinger, an experienced real estate agent, spoke on "Real Estate in the '80s."

Writers' Forum

The officers planned each meeting to instruct and motivate students interested in writing.



Miss Groff, a member of the English faculty, delivered an interesting lecture on the short story.



During its monthly meetings the Writers' Forum featured lectures on a variety of topics ranging from developing style to actually publishing an article.

Jeri Massi, V. Pres.; Becky Harrison, Pres.; Debbie Vierow, Treas.; Rachel Harrison, Sec.; Glenna Hockman, Sgt. at Arms

Association of Christian Teachers

Major Brooks challenged future Christian teachers to adhere to school standards and to live a consistent Christian life before their students.

An ACT membership entitles one to a wide variety of free materials offered at every meeting.

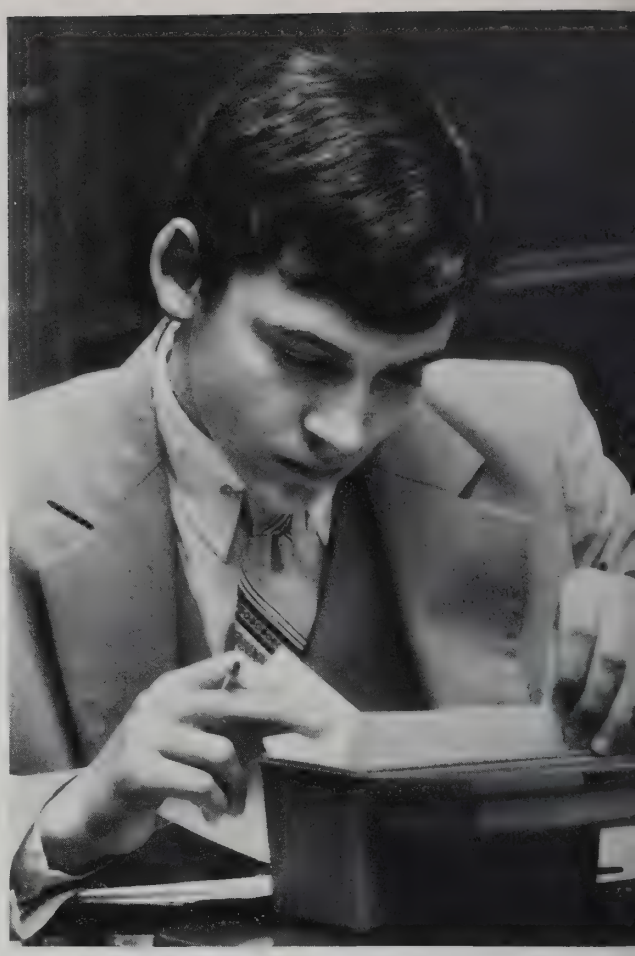
An old jacket and a toupee cannot disguise Bill Roach, the grinch of the Christmas party skit.

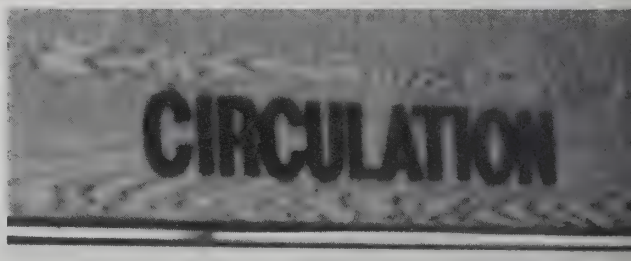
Debate Association

The debate team sponsors make final preparations before the Montevallo tournament.



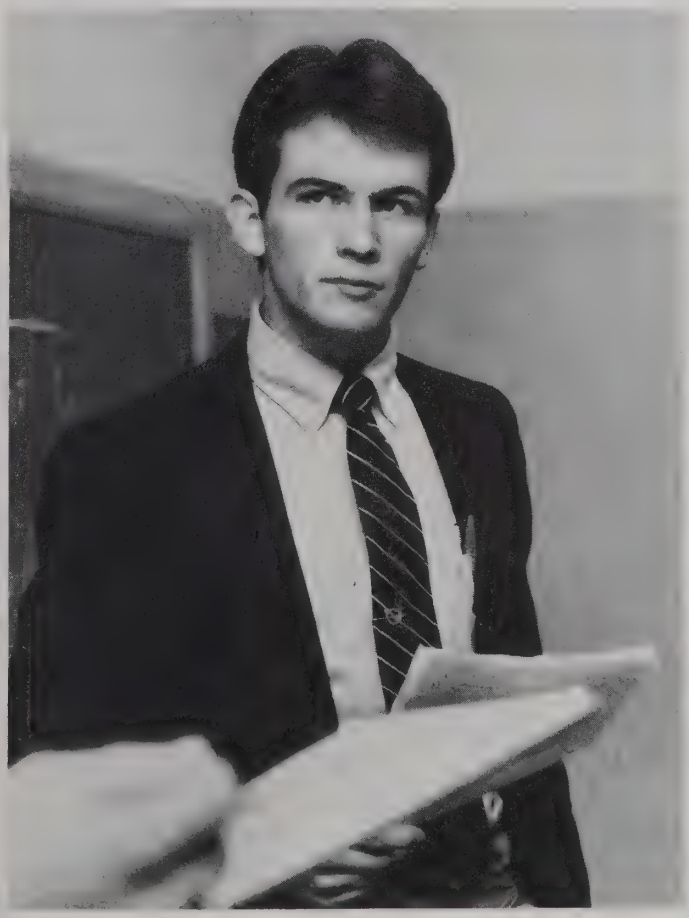
This year's intramural debate topic—Resolved: That a United States foreign policy based on human rights is undesirable—stimulated competition between all societies.

Jody Hassett also gained experience judging intramural practice rounds.

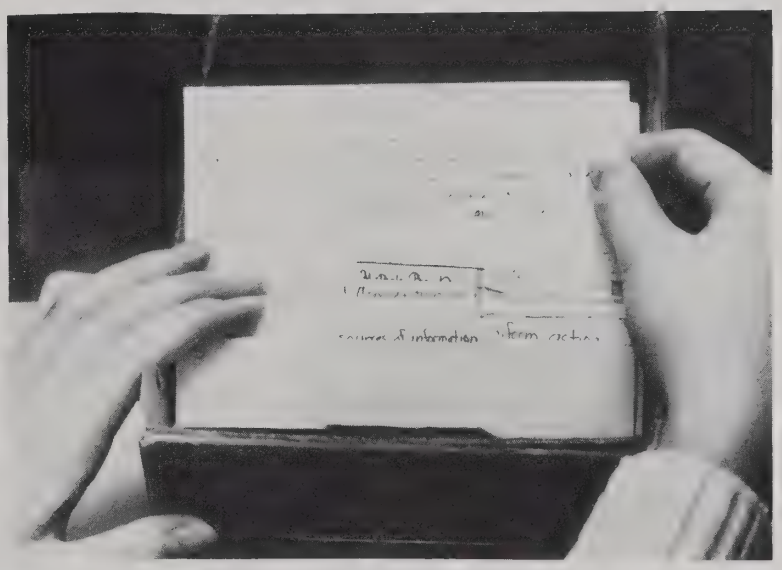


Gary Bryant, V. Pres.; Melissa Webb, Sec.; Dick Stephens, Pres.; Cheri Ingersoll, V. Pres.; Joel Heusinger, Treas.

The intercollegiate debate team won first place at Davidson College and also traveled to the University of Montevallo, the Citadel, and Wingate College for tournaments.

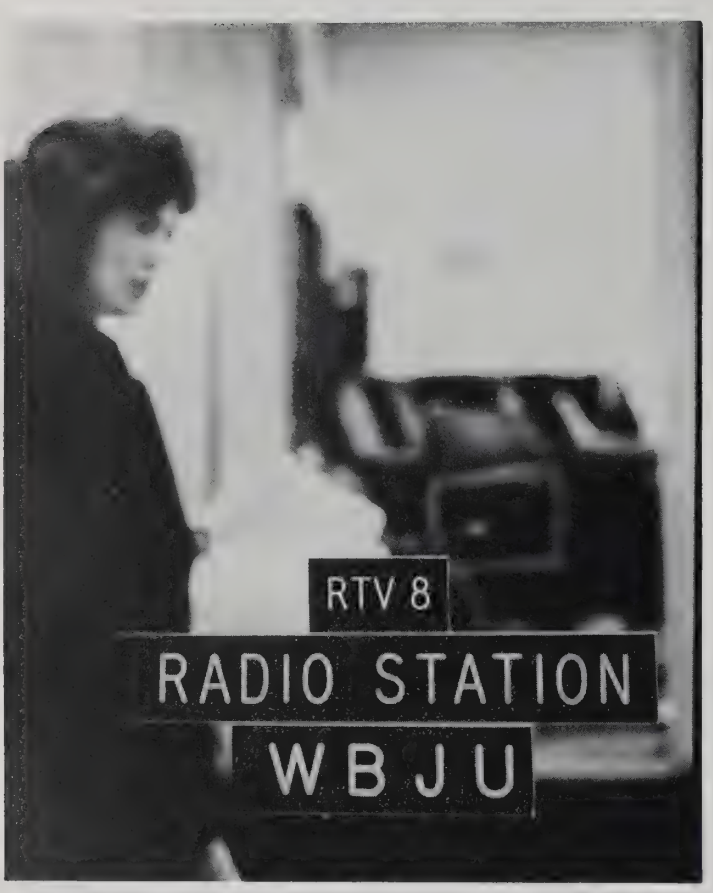


Brent Smith realizes that a thorough knowledge of the debate topic pays off during cross examination.



Many long hours of library research are necessary to compile information files full of evidence.

WBJU



Over 100 radio and television majors worked this year to make WBJU "Your Radio Station."

By working at WBJU, Ken Overby gains practical experience in all aspects of broadcasting.

In addition to routine news and music shows, WBJU provided Election Day coverage and other special programs such as the biannual "White Glove Special."

Language Club

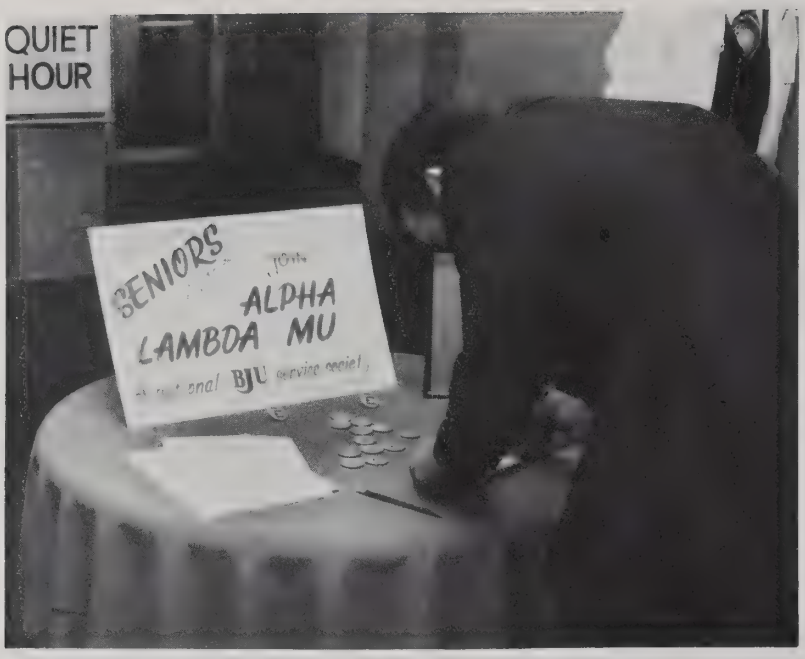
Melanie Bittner, Pres.; Krischa Matthia, Ger. V. Pres.; Lori Votaw, Fr. V. Pres.; Charles Thompson, Sp. V. Pres.

Each fall the three language clubs combine for an outing featuring international foods and games.

Robin Baird and Jim Carpenter participated in the French play L'Avare by Molière, while the Spanish and German students performed Un Drama Nuevo and Faust.

Students' frantic attempts to break candy-filled pinatas highlighted the outing's games.

Alumni Association



April 1980 saw the beginning of the Alpha Lambda Mu society. Since that time over 1000 members have joined in support of the SHOW MY PEOPLE television ministry.

The Alumni Association presented its annual Appreciation Award to Dr. Grace Levinson during half time activities at the 1980 Turkey Bowl.

Mr. Paul Wright, Pres.; Dr. Grace Collins, Third V. Pres.; Mrs. Laura Pratt, Second V. Pres.; Dr. Bud Bierman, Dir. of Alumni Affairs; Miss Kathy Dewey, Sec./Treas.; Mr. David Fisher, First V. Pres.

At times you may have noticed our office, especially our grinning pumpkin and blinking Christmas lights. Halloween and Christmas are the only times some people notice the VINTAGE office: many are uninterested; some are detached; a few, perhaps, are curious. Whatever your feelings, if you were to step inside the door marked "Staff Members Only," you might see what VINTAGE really is: planning, work, an unending bustle of picture-taking, visits to the print shop and to the photo studio, meetings, proofreading—forwards, backwards, horizontal, vertical—writing captions and copy, discussing ideas, a world where open-mindedness is the key to change. Prayer meetings, a staff dependent on God for strength to accomplish the task they have undertaken. Late-night meetings, struggling to stay awake in classes, homework somehow finished, teachers who are concerned about the book and the staff. Deadlines, a flurry of activity, group effort to finish the job. Completion. The finished product. The book finally in our hands—satisfaction. A file of discarded pictures, a chalkboard filled with quotations, the friendships we have formed—a VINTAGE year.

SPORTS

For the Epsilon Zeta Chi soccer team, a season-long race for a first place finish ended in victory at the 1980 Turkey Bowl. The Tornadoes used a mixture of potent passing and midfield control to roll to a 5-2 win over the Alpha Omega Lions, the defending soccer champions.

Dicky Stratton struck first for Omega with 12:10 gone in the first half. Zeta Chi did not score until early in the second half when Brian Weiss sliced the ball past Omega's goalie, Gary Benge. Omega's short rally following Weiss's goal resulted in a score by David DeCarlis. Steve Seaman, Doug Knight, Scott Camp, and Dave Smith each successfully slipped through Omega's defense to score the remaining four goals for Zeta Chi.

Basketball Championship

The 1980 Basketball Championship game matched the Basilean Eagles against the Alpha Omega Delta Lions. The game was fast and close as the Lions sought to out-hustle the taller Eagles, and Alpha Omega left the floor at half time leading 37 to 34. In the second half, the Basilean team fought back to take the lead under the leadership and shooting of Holbert and Lehman, but Stratton of Omega swished a 30-footer at the buzzer to put the game into overtime. Basilean, however, kept control of the play, sinking 80 percent of their 10 free throws in the overtime to win by a score of 83 to 77.

The 1981 VINTAGE staff would like to express appreciation to those who made this book possible:

Mr. Dave Appleman, who designed the cover, the endsheets, the introductory section, and the division pages; and helped us in numerous other ways.

The Alabama Engraving Company (Birmingham, Alabama), who did the engraving and worked on our behalf so that the book could be printed.

The Paragon Press (Montgomery, Alabama), who printed and bound the book and took a personal interest in our work.

The Bob Jones University Printing Department, who produced all of our typography and patiently worked with us through seven galleys of the class section.

The staff of the Unusual Films Photo Studio who was responsible for all photography; especially Miss Alice Cromley, who put up with our deadline rushes; Mr. Wade Ramsey and Mr. Dan Calnon, who took many special shots; and the cinema student photographers whom we dragged around for many hours in order to get all of our pictures.

Our teachers, who made it possible for us to meet "unmeetable" deadlines by their patience and understanding.

Building Complex

Every year has its outstanding events—some years more than others, 1980 more than most. The hostage crisis in Iran, inherited from the previous year, precluded a clean slate for 1980. In the United States, inflation soared. In the world, an earthquake in Africa that killed more than 17,000 people was the worst disaster in many years. Deep dissatisfaction with collectivism led many Cubans to the U.S. and prompted thousands of Polish workers to strike. The Russian invasion of Afghanistan, however, was probably the most significant and foreboding event of the year.

The new decade has brought us rough but enlightening times. The hostage crisis helped bring the American people out of a post-Vietnam complacency to a new patriotism, to a new concern for America's role in the world. It is hoped that the events in Cuba, Poland, and Afghanistan have opened the country's eyes to the injustice of socialism and the need to quell its influence. The liberal establishment's inability to deal effectively with inflation, Russian aggression, and other national concerns caused the nation to turn to a more conservative leadership.

Inflation and Russian aggression are difficult problems; but, in a larger sense, they are symptoms of a greater problem: the loss of will, America's loss of determination to see right prevail at home and abroad. Historically, the source of this will has been America's moral fiber, a structure of beliefs distinguishing right from wrong and demanding action for the right. The will has withered because the source has died or is dying. Recently, the re-emergence on a national scale of traditional mores has given us encouragement, a glimmer of hope. As the glimmer is wavering, flickering, so is a Christian's hope when he grounds it upon men or encouraging events. Men fail, events deceive; but Jesus Christ, the source and focal point of our hope, is always the same. He is, as He assured a confused and doubting disciple two thousand years ago, "the way, the truth, and the life. . . ."

414 Dr. Harold D. Kilpatrick

October 9, 1919 — September 11, 1980

Thoughts of the film Sheffey bring to mind mountain landscapes, a horse named Gideon, and a circuit rider with probing eyes who knew the power of prayer. Robert Sheffey's far-reaching ministry touched not only those he knew during his lifetime but also, through the film Sheffey, those of this generation as well. In his role as Sheffey, the Reverend Harold D. Kilpatrick also extended his personal ministry into the lives of many he never met. To portray another person successfully, it is necessary to "become" that person, and in this respect Dr. Kilpatrick had a good beginning, for his life paralleled Robert Sheffey's in many ways before he ever assumed the role. Like Sheffey, he served others. His heart was full of compassion for those around him, and he spent his life ministering to them. The four churches that he pastored remember him as a man of God who first prayed, then preached. Kindhearted and spirit-filled, he was a living portrayal of Christlikeness. Few men could fill the shoes of Robert P. Sheffey; Dr. Harold Kilpatrick stepped into them completely and fused the ministries of two great men of God into one.
